Residence Concerns-NA

Correspondence-went through

Old Business-NA

New Business

1. Insurance-Gary brought it to the board of the possibility of increasing our liability insurance to 5 million in coverage based on a recommendation from the insurance agent. This will help cover any possible lawsuits that may occur in the township during events that are held in the township. The Lions club will also be asked to increase their liability insurance. This will be brought back to our next meeting
2. Gary also was approached with the possibility of opening up a new potential ATV route to allow ATV riders get into town on Hwy 73 this will also be brought back to the next meeting.

Next meeting set for March 14th.
